and first chairwoman, Aloah Kincaid

Established in 1993, the Booker T. Washington Foundation for Excellence mission is to enhance all aspects of academic endeavors for the students, faculty and administration at Booker T. Washington High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Through grant making, fundraising, and human resource support, the Foundation is focused on providing additional resources to support the school's great tradition of excellence in academics and the arts. Since its inception, the Foundation has awarded over one million dollars in grants to the school's faculty and staff.

Booker T. alumni and families support the work of the Foundation through the Gospel, Grits and Gershwin fundraiser. Student performers, parent and student volunteers, and distinguished alumni team with Foundation members to make this event a highlight of each school year. The Foundation is committed to assisting Booker T. in providing "an education of the mind and life" and ensuring that the school remains the "Pride of the Great Southwest" for generations of students yet to come.
